WIFE - Martha BOWNE-4977

CHILD 1 - William PALMER Lieutenant-4970
Info: Ed Wickes, but notes confusing. B & d dates may be his wife's, as well as b & d places: "London, Yarmouth" does not specify Yarmouth, England, or Mass. What does "-1660-1 Yarmouth & Plymouth, Newtown LI" mean? Does "1)" before Lt. indicate this was 1st marriage? I used 1660-1 as wedding date because it fits in but am not sure that's what it means.

HUSBAND - Robert JENNINGS-4653

Derivation of Jennings (& 7 variations): "Janyn le Breton, 1332...Diminutive -in of Jan, Jon, Gen..." [Dictionary of British Surnames, PH Reaney, London, Routledge & Kegan Paul, 1958]

Most famous Jenningses from Birmingham, but family may have originated in near- by Shropshire. In 1601, Jennings (& variations) appeared 67x in Shropshire; in 1601, 121x (vs 13x in Kent; 4x in Berkshire). [References to English Surnames in 1601, FK & S Hitching, Wolton on Thames, Chas Bernau, 1910; ibid, 1601]

1994 IGI, version 3.05, contains this: "William Jennings, Sr: Birth, 5 July 1702, New Kent Co, VA; father Robert Jennings, Jr, mother, Alice Robertson. This is undocumented, but all but mother's name & "Jr" corroberated by son's bpt register [cf William Jennings, Sr #668].

B. place in England originally inferred from son William's bpt [Register, St. Peter's Parish, New Kent Co, VA, in Trist Wood Collection at UNC] which is said to name father as "Col. Robert Jennings, Immigrant." However, photostat of published Parish Register [Library of VA accession #19740] states only "...son of Rob/t Jenings..." [Cf Jennings Notes for complete discussion] Furthermore, "Old New Kent County: Some Account of the Planters, Plantations & Places" [M.H.Harris, West Point, VA, 1977, xerox in file] shows 2 other Jenningses in New Kent Co b/4 Robert's 1st son bpt in 1698, John & Edmund. Former was married & d, evidently while still young, abt 1700. Edmund was Atty-Gen of VA as early as 1784, accumulated >6000 acres in this Co. by 1705, & d. in 1727. Evidence suggest both were b. in VA. Only proof of Robert's existence to date is his mention in bpt record, but he might have been related to Edmund &/or John. Were they bros? Was Edmund their father? The "Jr" in IGI could mean Robert's father was Robert, but in 17th C. could mean only there was an older man in community w/ same name. [Lib of Va accession #20173, will of Robt Jennings, shows there was a contemporary Robert. He was of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover Co (formed out of New Kent in 1720). Will, dated 6 Dec 1750, proved 6 July 1750, named sons John Garland & Robert, daughs Sarah & Barbara, so this was almost certainly NOT our Robert.]

Pending further research, assume our Robert may have been b. either in England or America.

Compounding search from a Robert Jennings b. in England is IGI list of 31 different boys w/ this name b in England b/n 1650-75. Only 2 of them were b. in West Country, source of most of the Monmouth rebels, which may lead us to following [details in Jennings notes]:

July 1685: "The following convicted before Chief Justice Jefferies at the Court of Oyez & Terminer for Dorset, Somerset & Devon for waging war against the King & sentenced to be transported to the Americas [sentence enrolled 4 Feb 1691].." This is followed by 4 pages of names, among them ROBERT JENNINGS. ["Complete Book of Emigrants, 1661-1699," PW Coldham, Baltimore, Geneal Pub Co, 1990] These were men who participated in Monmouth's Revolt (revolt led by illegit- imate son of Charles II in June 1685 after accession of James II) who were fortunate not to have been hung, drawn & quartered at Dorchester, as their leaders were. Where they were transported in "the Americas" not known, but prob West Indies. No link yet found b/n this Robert Jennings & Robert Jennings of New Kent Co, but person arriving in Indies in 1691 could easily have reached VA by 1697 & would have been right age to start family. [Courts of "Oyez & Terminer" handled criminal offenses.]

That this was our Robert Jennings is intriguing & not impossible, but as yet we have no evidence whatsoever to connect them.

New Kent Co, formed in 1654, is short distance up York River from Williamsburg. St Peter's Parish was authorized in 1678. There were originally 2 churchs, & their records begin in 1684. In 1700 Vestry decided to consoli- date these into a single 60 x 24 church which was completed in 1703. Except for bell tower added in 1721, it remains same today. It is surrounded by 5 acre churchyard full of ancient gravestones. Martha Washington attended this church as young woman & here met future husb Daniel Parke Custis, who was Vestryman in 1739. [Ref in Jennings Notes; xerox & newspaper clipping w/ photo in file.]

Reference librarian at Library of VA says all New Kent land & probate records b/4 1865 were burned.

Was Robt. Jennings one of the Plymouth branch of Birmingham family who were engaged in trade w/ Colonies, as postulated by Robt. Stanley-Morgan? Most of those who joined Monmouth were from West Country, so that would fit.

Did fact that his grandson, Joseph #657, named his youngest son Robt Humphrey #667 indicate link w/ Birmingham family?

Undocumented item in 1994 IGI, ver 3.05 [printout in file] agrees but makes father Robert JR & gives mother's name Alice Robertson. Cf Walter A Watson's note, below, which gives m. date & place & mentions burial on "Dr Royall's Plantation."

1994 IGI, ver 3.05, confirms above marriage, altho it itself is undocumented --only "Temple Sealing." Printout in file.

Names & b. dates & spouses of all William's children comes from material copied by Marion Freymann from "The Storied Kendalls with Historical & Genealogical Records of Scottish & Allied Families" by Anne Kendrick Walker [ref not cited]. 1994 IGI, ver 3.05, contains list [printout in file] which agrees (except for b. date of 2nd child Agnes, 1827) & adds counties where some were b. It says 1st child was b. in Hanover Co in 1726. This fits. Wm Jennings & wife reputedly came to Nottoway Co from from Hanover Co. (Hanover was created from New Kent Co. in 1720.) First PROOF of William's residence in Amelia (later Nottoway) Co. was not until he made land sale there in 1764. Where was he in interim?

Above IGI lists b places of 2nd, 4th & 8th children in Sussex Co, spanning yrs from 1727 to 1736, while placing 5th child in Amelia Co in 1732. Sussex Co (which was part of Surry Co until 1753-4) is S of Hanover & E of Amelia- Nottoway & might have been way-station in this family's migration to latter. However, seems unlikely they would have moved to Amelia in 1732 & then back to Sussex b/4 finally settling in Amelia. Furthermore, Amelia itself was not formed until 1734. In 1732, southern part that eventually became Nottoway Co was prob part of Brunswick Co. IGI cites LDS film references but notes "films contain no additional info." For that reason, I did not check them but should have to find if they were valid documents. WILL LIST THESE B. PLACES OF CHILD- REN BUT W/ RESERVATION PENDING FURTHER RESEARCH.

selling all their possessions, their crops & debts to youngest son Joseph, it appears they were divesting themselves of everything exept the 200 acres on which they lived (already deeded to Joseph on their deaths) & retiring from active life. Mary was to live another 20 yrs; Wm another 25!]

1790 Census, Amelia Co, VA (from index at Natl Archives): Capt William Jinnings (sic), 8 white souls, 1 dwelling, 1 other bldg. [Since 1790 Census named only heads of households & since Wm Sr was at least 88 in 1790, THIS WAS MOST LIKELY HIS SON, WM JR, WHO WAS ABT 64.]

7 Feb 1792: Wm Jennings & wife Mary of Nottoway Co deed to son Joseph of same place 167 1/2 acres in Nottoway Co. Witnesses: James Anderson, Langley B. Jennings, Joseph Jennings, Jr. [Nottoway Co Deed Book 1, p 294]

2 July 1792: Wm Jennings sold to Joseph Jennings Sr for 200 pounds [apparently same land as in 7 Feb transaction] 167 1/2 acres in Nottoway Co beginning on S side of Cabbin Branch & running to corner of said Joseph Jennings Sr few steps below his Ordinary spring...to the main road above the Ordinary. Witnesses: Js Anderson, Langley B Jennings, Joseph Jennings Jr. "Molly Jennings, wife of Wm Jennings, examined...said indenture 18 Dec 1792."

7 June 1800: Inventory & appraisal of Estate of Wm Jennings, Sr, Dec'd, by Joseph Jennings, Sr, James Cook, Joseph Jennings, Jr. Adminstrators Nelson Jennings & Lemuel Jennings. [Cited by Doughty; JMF did not copy ref]

In 1971 Marion Freymann, Sarah Freymann & JGF located a monument inscribed "Col William Henry Jennings, 1676-1775, Born in England, Retired British Officer" in the midst of a dense forest in Jennings Ordinary, VA. (Slides in Jennings file.) This is obviously of recent vintage & there is no evi- dence this was his actual grave. Quite likely this is relic of Mary Jane Hardester's attempt to claim fortune left by William Jennings of Acton (England) by asserting this William Jennings was son of Humphrey Jennings of Birmingham/ Acton. In 1990 JGF & RKF interviewed Robt Stanley-Morgan, authority on Birmingham Jenningses, in Birmingham. HE SAID HE HAS WILL OF WILLIAM, SON OF HUMPHREY, & THAT WM D. IN LONDON IN 1744 W/O ISSUE. Hardester claimed Wm was Capt in British Army. No known evidence for this. Cf notes on Mary Jane Hardester (#650) for "Capt. Billy's" burial.

Walter A Watson's "Notes on Southside, Virginia" [cited by JMF w/o further ref] bought Hardester's version but does raise possibility Wm Jennings came from England & was not child bpt in New Kent Co: "William Jennings was the first of the name in Nottoway Co. He had moved from Hanover Co just before his death & settled on what is known as Dr Royall's Plantation. He is supposed to be buried in Dr Royall's pines in the old burial ground. The tradition in the family is that Capt Wm Jennings was born in England in 1676, died 1775 in Nottoway Co, a son of Humphrey Jennings; that he was a British officer, emigrated to America, settling in Virginia near Gloucester Bay in 1723. [Gloucester Bay may be same as Mobjack Bay, where Wm Moxley is reputed to have settled. Gloucester Point forms its southern shore & is abt 25 mi down the York River from New Kent.] He afterwards moved to Hanover Co [further upstream from New Kent & formed from it in 1720], where he married 1 Jan 1724, Mary Jane Pulliam. Family data show Mary J Pulliam b 1704, d. 1794, a daughter of James & Mary Pulliam."

"Jennings Ordinary. Near here were some of the finest homes in Nottoway Co before the War b/n the States. The place was first settled by Col Wm Jennings who died in Amelia, now Nottoway Co in 1775. The house in which Col Jennings lived is still standing, an old tavern from which Jennings Ordinary received its name." [Turner, "Old Homes & Families in Nottoway," cited by JMF]

In 1986 JMF, MWF & JGF were escorted thru the only dwelling house in hamlet of Jennings Ordinary, Nottoway Co, VA by the current owner. The house has been extensively modernized, but he said it is "very old." We couldn't estimate how old, but this might have been the inn ("ordinary") William is said to have operated in the early 1700s.

"Other Jennings homes in the Co are Mallory Hill, Rural Retreat & Hico.
Mallory Hill, home of Macajah Jennings, built abt 1807 & still standing, is now owned by Gordon Lee Jennings, descendant of Col Wm Jennings...Rural Retreat, built abt 1790 & afterwards abt 1840 bought by Capt John Fowlkes, himself a descendant of Col Jennings, is now owned by a dau of Capt Fowlkes, Mrs Amanda Lipscomb, the oldest descendant of Col Wm Jennings. Hico was built abt 1841 by Macajah Cilds (sic) Jennings, a great grandson of Macajah Jennings. Here Mary Jane Hardester wrote her account of Col Wm Jennings, 9 July 1873." [Turner, date of writing unknown]

Research questions: Did Wm Jennings Sr ever serve Crown in military capacity? ("Capt Wm Jinnings" in 1790 Census was prob his son.)

1790 Census, Amelia Co, VA (from index at Natl Archives): Capt William Jinnings (sic), 8 white souls, 1 dwelling, 1 other bldg. [Since 1790 Census named only heads of households & since Wm Sr was at least 88 in 1790, THIS WAS MOST LIKELY HIS SON, WM JR, WHO WAS ABT 64.]

In 1971 Marion Freymann, Sarah Freymann & JGF located a monument inscribed "Col William Henry Jennings, 1676-1775, Born in England, Retired British Officer" in the midst of a dense forest in Jennings Ordinary, VA. (Slides in Jennings file.) This is obviously of recent vintage & there is no evi- dence this was his actual grave. Quite likely this is relic of Mary Jane Hardester's attempt to claim fortune left by William Jennings of Acton (England) by asserting this William Jennings was son of Humphrey Jennings of Birmingham/ Acton. In 1990 JGF & RKF interviewed Robt Stanley-Morgan, authority on Birmingham Jenningses, in Birmingham. HE SAID HE HAS WILL OF WILLIAM, SON OF HUMPHREY, & THAT WM D. IN LONDON IN 1744 W/0 ISSUE. Hardester claimed Wm was Capt in British Army. No known evidence for this. Cf notes on Mary Jane Hardester (#650) for "Capt. Billy's" burial.

Walter A Watson's "Notes on Southside, Virginia" [cited by JMF w/o further ref] bought Hardester's version but does raise possibility Wm Jennings came from England & was not child bpt in New Kent Co: "William Jennings was the first of the name in Nottoway Co. He had moved from Hanover Co just before his death & settled on what is known as Dr Royall's Plantation. He is supposed to be buried in Dr Royall's pines in the old burial ground. The tradition in the family is that Capt Wm Jennings was born in England in 1676, died 1775 in Nottoway Co, a son of Humphrey Jennings; that he was a British officer, emigrated to America, settling in Virginia near Gloucester Bay in 1723. [Gloucester Bay may be same as Mobjack Bay, where Wm Moxley is reputed to have settled. Gloucester Point forms its southern shore & is abt 25 mi down the York River from New Kent.] He afterwards moved to Hanover Co [further upstream from New Kent & formed from it in 1720], where he married 1 Jan 1724, Mary Jane Pulliam. Family data show Mary J Pulliam b 1704, d. 1794, a daughter of James & Mary Pulliam."

"Jennings Ordinary. Near here were some of the finest homes in Nottoway Co before the War b/n the States. The place was first settled by Col Wm Jennings who died in Amelia, now Nottoway Co in 1775. The house in which Col Jennings lived is still standing, an old tavern from which Jennings Ordinary received its name." [Turner, "Old Homes & Families in Nottoway," cited by JMF]

In 1986 JMF, MWF & JGF were escorted thru the only dwelling house in hamlet of Jennings Ordinary, Nottoway Co, VA by the current owner. The house has been extensively modernized, but he said it is "very old." We couldn't estimate how old, but this might have been the inn ("ordinary") William is said to have operated in the early 1700s.

"Other Jennings homes in the Co are Mallory Hill, Rural Retreat & Hico.
Mallory Hill, home of Macajah Jennings, built abt 1807 & still standing, is now owned by Gordon Lee Jennings, descendant of Col Wm Jennings...Rural Retreat, built abt 1790 & afterwards abt 1840 bought by Capt John Fowlkes, himself a descendant of Col Jennings, is now owned by a dau of Capt Fowlkes, Mrs Amanda Lipscomb, the oldest descendant of Col Wm Jennings. Hico was built abt 1841 by Macajah Cilds (sic) Jennings, a great grandson of Macajah Jennings. Here Mary Jane Hardester wrote her account of Col Wm Jennings, 9 July 1873." [Turner, date of writing unknown]

Research questions: Did Wm Jennings Sr ever serve Crown in military capacity? ("Capt Wm Jinnings" in 1790 Census was prob his son.)

WIFE - Mary Jane PULLIAM-669

B, d & m dates from highly suspect "Notes on Southside, Virginia" by Walter A Watson quoted in notes on Wm Jennings Sr #668.

Same source says her parents were James & Mary Pulliam.

CHILD 1 - William JENNINGS Jr.-670

William married Agnes Dickerson.

1790 Census, Amelia Co, VA (from index at Natl Archives): Captain William Jinnings (sic), 8 white souls, 1 dwelling, 1 other bldg. [Since he was abt 64 in 1790 & his father Wm Sr was at least 88, this was most likely Wm Jr, since only heads of households were named in 1790 Census.]

CHILD 2 - Agnes JENNINGS-671

Agnes married H. Dickerson, possibly the brother of William Jr's wife.
They had 4 children. "Storied Kendalls" gave same b yr as Wm Jr, suggesting they were twins. IGI cited in father's note [668] gives 1727. Cf this note for discussion of b. places of all children.

CHILD 3 - Elizabeth JENNINGS-672

Elizabeth married George Walton in 1746. Her parents sold him 177 acres on N side of Deep Creek in Notoway Parish, Amelia Co, in 1764 [cf Wm Sr's note, #668]

CHILD 4 - Sarah JENNINGS-673

Sarah married John Fowlkes, possibly bro of her sis Mary's husb.

CHILD 5 - Mary JENNINGS-674

Cf father's note [668] for source of b. place & doubts about it.

Mary married Joseph Fowlkes, possibly the brother of Sarah's husband.

Affadavit signed by Francis B Robertson in 1876 (prob to back up Mary Jane Hardcaster's claim to the Jennings fortune & therefore suspect in some parts): "I, Francis B Robertson, of the County of Amelia, VA, do say, that I will be 80 years of age in March next. That I was born in the County of Nottoway...that I am a granddaughter of Mary Fowlkes, whose maiden name was Jennings. My grandmother, Mary Fowlkes, died in 1822. That I remember to have heard her speak of her father's name, William Jennings, that he was an Englishman, and came to this Count[r?]y, and settled first in Hanover Co, VA, and was married to Mary Pulliam. That her father, William Jennings, moved from Hanover Co to Not- toway Co, VA, then Amelia Co...& he settled at the place now known as Jennings' Ordinary, at which place he died. My grandmother, Mary Fowlkes, also stated that...her husband & herself resided in Hanover Co some time after her father's removal to Nottoway, & had two sons, Thomas & John, & they then removed to Nottoway, & had other children, viz: Joseph J Fowlkes (who was my father), Sterling, William & Austin. I have frequently heard her, my grandmother, speak of her sisters, Sarah & Anne, her brothers also, Robert, William, John & Joseph. Joseph Jennings was the youngest, & lived until I was old enogh to remember she would go to visit [him]. I must have been about some 7 or 8 years of age. I knew the children of my great uncle Joseph Jennings. Langley Billups Jennings, who was the father of Mrs M J Harcaster; Mary, who married Richard Oliver; Anne, who married Cuffe Joe Jennings; he died, & she after married Dr Hornory (sic); Sally married Talbot; Sarah, her own sister, married a John Fowlkes; but I have no recollection of my uncle John Fowlkes or my aunt Sarah. I only know what I learned from my grandmother. Given under my hand this 24th day of June 1876. /s/ Francis B Robertson." [Quoted by JMF; source not known. HUSBAND - Joseph JENNINGS Sr.-657

Mormon IGI for VA shows "Joseph Jennings m Anne Billings (sic) 30 Sept 1767 in Nottoway Co." "The Storied Kendalls" gives date 30 Jan 1767. Latter source of b & d dates, burial place & wife's d date & burial place.

21 June 1774: Joseph Jennings & wife Ann of Nottoway Parish, Amelia Co, sold est 200 acres for 200 pounds to Samuel Thompson (possibly husb of his sis Nancy Anne) of same Co. /s/ Joseph & Anna Jennings; witnesses John Jennings, Nusom Pace. [Amelia Co Records, Book 13, p 86] [This was 3 days b/4 Joseph's father sold everything he owned to him. Joseph may have sold his own land in preparation for taking over his father's holdings, even tho he would not own the lands until both parents died.]

Info recorded by MWF in Jackson Bldg, Amelia Co Historical Lib: "Joseph Jennings, son of Wm Jennings, was a Revolutionary soldier, as was his brother Robert. Joseph was member of Capt Drayton's Co, So Carolina Militia. Application produced on command by Col Pinckney, Aug 23, 1775 & endorsed. See list of Company in So Carolina Historical Mag, Virginia Militia in the Revolution, by J P McCallister, Sect 252. Amelia Co [records?] gives Joseph Jennings sworn into office as Captain, 1777." (MWF could not find this record.) Doughtie said he was captain in Amelia Co Mililtia, taking oath 20 Sept 1777. His Public Service Claims are in Amelia Co Court Booklet 1, pp 24, 2-35; Commissioner's Bk 1, pp 65-68.

Related note from "Storied Kendalls:" "Joseph Jennings - Cp S. Sept 20, 1777. (DAR Nat'l Nos. 36130-89221-105880) (Tyler's Quarterly Mag, p 65, Nottoway Co, VA) (Inventory of Robt B Munford taken Aug 1804). [I have no idea what this means!]

Doughty said Joseph was frequently styled "Sr" not because of his son Joseph (b 1775) but to distinguish him from his nephew, son of his bro William,, who was b 1762. [This may explain the confusion of wills below.]

27 July 1786: William Jennings & Joseph Jennings Jr [prob sons of bro William, since Joseph's son by that name was only 11 then], as partners in grist mill on Deep Creek just below mouth of Cabin Branch, in consideration of drowning & otherwise damaging land of Joseph Jennings Sr adjoining mill, agreed that latter shall have all his grist ground w/o "requiring...more than half toll & having the flower (sic) Bathed w/o exacting any of the brand."

1790 Census, Amelia Co, VA (from index at Natl Archives): Joseph Jennings Sr: 11 white souls; 4 dwellings, 7 other bldgs. [He was abt 51 in 1790]

6 July 1795: Joseph Jennings Sr sold slave to David G Talbot of Campbell Co (prob husb of dau Martha). Witnesses: Langley B Jennings, Richard Oliver [hust of dau Mary], Joseph Jennings Jr. [Nottaway Co Book B, p 497]

28 Dec 1795: Joseph Jennings Sr deeded 100 acres in Nottoway Co to James Camp of North Carolina "for love & affection he bears to James Camp & his daughter, Sarah Camp, wife of said Camp..." If James died, land to go to Jennings' wife Anna; if Sarah died, land to go to Joseph Jennings Jr. Witnesses: James Dupuy

Jr, Langley B Jennings, Wyatt Moring (sic). Land given w/understanding that James Camp "is to remove back from No Carolina" & settle on this land during life of Joseph Jennings Sr & wife Anna. Deed "is to be firm" after Joseph dies of moves elsewhere. [Nottoway Co Book 2, p 84]

5 Mar 1801: "For love & affection & sum of 5 shillings" Joseph Jennings Sr of Nottoway Co grants 208 acres in Nottoway Co to Langley B Jennings. Witnesses: Joseph J Fowlkes [nephew, son of sis Mary], Wm A Morriss, Thomas Clarke, Wm Carter. [Nottoway Co Deed, book & pg not given]

Joseph was the 10th and last son of William Jennings. Wm deeded total 368 acres in Amelia (later Nottoway) Co to Joseph, to become his on the death of both father and mother. Since Wm lived to abt 98 (estate appraised June 1800), Joseph had to wait until he was abt 61 to get the land (which included Jennings' Ordinary) while, ever since 1774, he had apparently supported his aged parents. [cf 1774 & earlier deeds in Wm Sr's note #668] This may explain the size of his family & property in 1790 Census. Joseph d only 4 yrs aft his father.

D date from family bible cited by Beatrice M Doughty "Documented Notes on Jennings & Allied Families" [JMF ref, source unknown]

[From Doughtie] Will signed 18 Oct (Nov?) 1803, proved Feb 1805, named wife Anne B Jennings executrix, Langley B Jennings, James Duprey (sic), Littleberry Royall, John Billups of Lunenberg Co, Abraham Hatcher & Philip Dunnerant Jr executors. Legacies to dau Mary Oliver, wife of Richard Oliver; son Langley B Jennings; dau Martha Talbot, wife of David Talbot; dau Sarah Camp; dau Elizabeth Hall; "Juncy & Armon" [Lucy Armon??]; wife Anne. Mentioned plantation he owned 5 mi below where he lived called "Fergussons." [Nottoway Will Book 2, p 146]

NB: Inclusion of Littleberry Royall as executor above is link w/ tale that Joseph's father settled on "Dr Royall's Plantation" when he moved to Nottoway & was buried in Dr Royall's pine wood [cf Wm Jennings #668]

[Nottoway Co Records, Book 4, p 302]

Putting above documents together, we can account for 8 of Joseph's 10 children. Missing 2 are Joseph, who d in 1800, & Robert Humphrey, who must have d b/4 Joseph wrote his will in 1803. I am pretty sure the odd "Juncy & Armon" (as Doughtie copied it from the will) was Lucy Armon, a dau who m Robert Billups, a relation on her mother's side. Cf Joseph's FGR for details on each child.

NB: Marion Freymann found will of "Joseph Jennings Sr" in Nottoway Will Book 1, p 146, dated 17 June 1807 & proved 4 Feb 1808, which listed different family. Some children not yet at lawful age. This must have been been the OTHER Joseph Jennings noted above, son of William Jennings Jr #670.

WIFE - Anne BILLUPS-658

1994 IGI, ver 3.05, lists "miscellaneous event" (birth?) abt 1757 in VA. This is clearly inconsistent w/ known m. date. Printout in file shows LDS film source, which might be looked up.

CHILD 1 - Mary JENNINGS-659

Mary married Richard Oliver. Apparently this was not happy marriage. In her father's will (written in fall of 1803) he instructed: "in the event of bad treatment of my daughter Mary by her said husband shall force a separation, ...Executors are required to obtain a divorce in Nottoway Co in case Mary Oliver vs Richard Oliver, a suit which appears already to have been instituted." In 24 Mar 1812 contract signed by both husbs & wives, she signed alone as Mary Oliver [cf father's note #657].

1820 Census, Nottoway Co (no twp), VA, pg 460 lists a Mary Jennings as head of household of 1 F >45 w/ 8 slaves, of whom 3 in agriculture. This may well have been our Mary, divorced & operating a farm under her maiden name.

D date from "The Storied Kendalls."

NB: Birthplace of all Joseph's children placed in Jennings' Ordinary b/c known from land records he was there as early as 1764.

CHILD 2 - Anne (Nancy) JENNINGS-660

Anne married twice: 1) Cuffe Joe Jennings [name per Francis Robertson's affidavit; cf note on her Aunt Mary Jennings #674]; 2) Dr William Flournoy. She & Flournoy both signed contract dated 24 Mar 1812, at which time they were living in Chesterfield Co, VA [cf father's note #657].

1820 Census Nottoway Co (no twp), VA, pg 440 lists a Nancy Jennings as head of household of 1 F >45 w/8 slaves, 5 of whom were in agriculture. This might have been Anne (Nancy) operating farm w/o her 2nd husb, or it might have been woman from another branch of this large family.

David & Talbot, James Cuno, William Hall, Henry Pinkerton, Mary Oliver, Jane Jonesboro. [Tollbooth Co Records, Book C, p 302]

Putting above documents together, we can account for R of Joseph's 12 children. Elsalee & are Joseph, who d in 1850. & Robert Sandusky, who must have d bef Joseph wrote his will in 1865. I am pretty sure the odd "Nancy & James" [on Dougals] copied it from the will) was Lucy Ayres, a dau who m Robert Billups, & relation to her mother's side. Cf Joseph's POA for Cordelia on next page.

NOTE: Martha Freeman found will of "Joseph Jernigan Sr" in Dunlavy Hill Book I, p 146, dated 12 June 1823 & proved 1 Feb 1826, which listed different family. Some children not all at twelve. This must have been the OTHER Joseph Jernigan noted above, son of William Jernigan Sr Esq.

CORDELIA J - Mary Billups-Gee

Mary married Richard Oliver. Apparently this was not Mary Jernigan. In her father's will [written in fall of 1849] he [illegible] "is the record of bad treatment" he disabled Mary by her said husband until force & separation, ...Executors are required to obtain a divorce in Tollbury Co in case Mary Oliver is Richard Oliver, & suit which appears already to have been instituted." In 52 Mar 1853 contract signed by both Brown & wives, one signed Anne as Mary Oliver [of father's note 1852].

1850 Census. Bellamy Co (no twp). PA, 49 dau Ilsis & Mary Jernigan as head of household of 1 F 31? w/ 3 slaves, of whom 2 is agricultur. This one will have been Mary, divorced & operating a farm under her maiden name.

to Flournoy, Joseph, Chesterfield Co, 15 May 1812. Joseph must have been related to William Flournoy. Polly could not have been Anne's sis; perhaps she was cousin, daugh of 1 of Wm Jennings Sr's many sons.

CHILD 3 - Langley Billups JENNINGS-647

B, m & d dates from "The Storied Kendalls."

He m Mary (Polly) Cook in VA in 1796. James Cook who participated in inventory of Wm Jennings' estate in June 1800 prob was relative of Langley's wife, which suggests she was native of Nottoway Co also.

5 Mar 1801: for love, affection & 5 shillings, his father granted him 208 acres in Nottoway Co [cf Joseph Jennings #657 for deed].

1810 Census, Nottoway Co, VA, pg 19: Jennings, Langly (sic) B: 1 M 10-16 (Creed, age?); 1 M 26-45 (Langley, 38); 5 F <10 (3 daughs w/ unknown b dates: Elizabeth, Susan, Mary Jane & other 2, perhaps unknown daughs who d aft 1810??); 1 F 26-45 (Polly, 31); 8 slaves.

Total population of Nottoway Co in 1810 was 9658. Of those: white males, 1380; white females, 1350; free colored, 180; slaves, 6368. Not only was population 2/3 slaves, the white population was very young: only 445 males & 414 females were >26.

He was an executor of father's will (proved Feb 1805) & played major role in settling of his estate; e.g., in Jan 1812 he was indemnified by other heirs in selling all Joseph's "perishable properties, household & kitchen furniture, plantation utensils, etc." & bound to distribute proceeds among them.

24 Mar 1812: all heirs of Joseph Jennings & their spouses signed contract. Only exception was "Langley B Jennings of Nottoway Co," whose wife did NOT sign. Significance?

1820 Census, Nottoway Co, VA (no twp), pg 436: Jennings, Langley B: 3 M <10 (William, Joseph & 1 other, who perhaps d aft 1820); 1 M 26-45 (Langley); 1 F <10 (Sarah Amanda); 4 F 10-16 (Susan, Mary Jane & 2 others listed in 1810?); 1 F 16-25 (Elizabeth), 1 F 26-45 (Polly); 5 slaves. Note Creed had left home. [County population structure was same as in 1810: 2805 whites (only 920 >26) & 6676 slaves. Langley was obviously a minor slave owner.]

In addition to the Mary & Nancy Jennings in 1820 Census living nearby (pp 460 & 440) who may have been Langley's sisters (cf their notes 659 & 660), there were 2 other Jennings I can't identify. They were prob uncles or cousins: Henry Jennings, >45, w/ 88 slaves (p 438), & Micah Jennings, 26-45, w/ 7 small children & 25 slaves (pg 440).

10 Oct 1827: Langley B & Polley Jennings of Nottoway Co sold Nathan Ward 330 acres where Jennings now resides together w/ all appurtanances (property not described) for $4150. Witnesses: F. Wortham, John Chandler, Edmund Fizgerald. /s/ Langley B Jennings, Polley Jennings. [Nottoway Co Records, Book 8, pp 96-7] This was prob disposal of all property preparatory to move south to Brunswick Co, VA.

In Pinaway, Wayne, Chesterfield Co., 15 May 1813. Joseph must have been related to William Pinaway. Polly could not have been Anne's sis; perhaps she was cousin, daug of 1 of Wm Jennings Sr's many cousins.

CHILD 2 - Landry William JENNINGS-657

B, M & D dates from "The Storied Kendalls."

Be a Mary (Polly) Cheek in VA in 1756. James took who participated in Secretary of VA Campaign' relief in June 1864 prob was relative of Landry's wife, which explains who was native of Nottoway Co also.

B Apr 1801: Jor Jane, affection & 5 siblings. His father granted him 204 acres in Nottoway Co [pr Joseph Jennings 1837 for deed].

1820 Census, Nottoway Co, VA, pg 10: Jennings, Landy (sic) B. 1 M 10-16 (Cried, appl): 1 M 26-44 (Landry, JR): 3 F 16-25 dwgbs +/ someone b dates: Elizabeth. Sneed. Mary Jane 4 other 2, perhaps nonone dwgbs who d aft 1810?): 1 F 25-45 (Polly, JR); 6 slaves.

Total population of Nottoway Co in 1810 was 3020. Of those: white males, 1360; white females, 1250; free colored, 180; slaves, 630. Not only was population 1/3 slaves. The white population was very young: only 142 males & 111 females were 21C.

He was an investor of Tarbare's will (proved Nov 1802) & played major role in settling of his estate; e.g., in Jan 1813 he was indemnified by other heirs in selling all Joseph's "perishable properties, household & kitchen furniture, plantation utensils, etc." & bound to distribute proceeds among them.

21 Apr 1813: All heirs of Joseph Jennings & their spouses signed contract. Only exception was "Landry & Jennings of Nottoway Co," whose wife did NOT sign. Significance?

1820 Census, Nottoway Co, VA (no twn), pg 150: Jennings, Landry JR: 2 M 010 (William, Joseph & 1 other, who perhaps d aft 1820): 1 M 26-45 (Landry): 1 F 010 (Sarah Jennings): 1 F 16-18 (Jane, Mary Jane & 1 other finish in 1820?): 1 F 16-25 (Elizabeth). 1 F 26-44 (Polly): 1 slaves. Note Green and Jeff Jones. [Jane's population structure was same as in 1810: 2000 whites (only 800 >21) & 1010 slaves. Landry was obviously a minor slave owner.]

In addition to the Mary & Nancy Jennings in 1810 Census living nearby (up 100 & 140) who may have been Landry's sisters (cf their notes 850 & 690), there were 2 other Jennings: I can't identify. They were prob nearby in counties: Mary Brunswick, 410, p/ 82 slaves (p 1501), & Wilmah Jennings, 28-45, w/ 7 small children & 25 slaves (pg 140).

In Oct 1817: Landry & 4 Valley Jennings of Nottoway Co sold Walton Bond 200 acres where Landry was trustee together w/ all appurtenances (property not described) for $1150. Witnesses: A. Gordon, John Chandler, Edmund Fitzgerald. [4 Landry & Jennings, Valley Jennings, Baltimore Co Secretary, Book 4, pg 56-7]
This was prob distress of all property proceedings to move south to Brunswick Co, VA.

HUSBAND Joseph JENNINGS Sr.-657 Yr of Birth 1739
WIFE Anne BILLUPS-658 Yr of Birth

6 Nov 1828: Indenture...between Langley B Jennings of Nottoway Co & Creed Jennings of Georgia. Witness: that whereas the said Langley B Jennings from the natural love & affection which he hath for his daugher Susan E Dabbs & his grandchild, Amanda M Dabbs, daugher of said Susan, & from the love & regard & divers other considerations in the said Langley B Jennings, moving which he the said Langley B Jennings entertains for & towards John W Dabbs, infant son of James Dabbs, husband of said Susan, is desirous of securing unto them the said Susan E, Amanda M & John W Dabbs, a support in the world. Now, therefore, this Indenture witnesseth that the said Langley B Jennings for & in consideration of the premises & for & in virtue of the further consideration of $10...paid by the said Creed Jennings...hath this day bargained, sold, etc...unto the said Creed Jennings...all the title, interest & estate which he the said Langley hath in the dower of Ann Powell of the County of Amelia which she the said Ann Powell now holds & occupies in right of dower to her late husband, William Powell, & which he, the said Langley Jennings lately purchased of James Dabbs, who was entitled to a share thereof in right of his late wife Amanda M Dabbs, formerly Powell, together with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging... with him the said Creed Jennings...In the special Trust & confidence...that he the said Creed Jennings shall...take into his possession the said property hereby conveyed...so soon as the said Ann Powell shall depart this life & the right to the possession of the same come unto the distributies of the said William Powell, dec'd, & the profits thereof pay over annually unto the said Susan E, Amanda M & John W Dabbs for their support & maintenance, free from the control of the husband of said Susan E Dabbs & so do from year to year until the said Amanda M & John W Dabbs shall come to lawful age or marry...one third of the estate conveyed to each of the said infant children respectively..& apply to the maintenance & support of said Susan E Dabbs until the death of her present husband. Should she survive him then Creed Jennings shall convey the estate to Susan E Dabbs. /s/ Langley B Jennings. Witnesses: James Dabbs, Frances R Jennings, Eliza C Jennings. [Nottoway Co Records Book 4, p 251]

Interpretation: Langley's dau Susan E m James Dabbs shortly b/4 1828 & had infant dau Amanda M by him. James' 1st wife was Amanda M Powell, by whom he had son James W, who was also still infant in 1828. Amanda apparently died shortly b/4. Amanda was apparently sis of William Powell, also dec'd. Wm's wife Ann held part of her late husb's property by right of dower, while part had gone to his sis Amanda & then, on her death, to her husb James Dabbs. Langley had purchased the latter from Dabbs & was now selling it for $10 to his son Creed. Creed was to pay profits annually to his sis Susan, her dau Amanda, & her step-son John W free from control by her husb, John Dabbs. On Ann Powell's death, her dower rights would apparently go to Creed too.

15 Dec 1828: Langley Jennings puts up negro woman China, her 5 children, & 2 other slaves, Griffin & Cynthia, as security that he will repay debt of $696.37 + interest to Dromgoole bros b/4 1 Feb 1829. [Brunswick Co Book 28, p 133] [This indicates Langley had moved his family to Brunswick Co late in 1828.]

22 June 1829: Langley puts up same 8 slaves as security he will repay debt of $439.22 to Mssrs Trumbull & Powell by 1 July. [Brunswick Co Book 28, p 209]

1830 Census, St. Andrew's Parish, Brunswick Co (1st county S of Nottoway), VA, pg 262: Jennings, Langley B: 1 M 5-10 (unknown son younger than Sarah?); 1 M 50-60 (Langley); 1 F 10-15 (Sarah Amanda); 1 F 15-20 (Mary Jane); 1 F 20-30 (Elizabeth); 1 F 40-50 (Polly); 17 slaves.

Population of Brunswick Co similar to neighboring Nottowy: out of a total of 15,767, 5397 were white, 612 free colored & 9758 slaves.

1831: Langley sent racehorse "Ball Hornet" in care of son-in-law James Dabbs to son Creed, who lived in Walton Co, GA. Plan was for Creed to sell horse for $1000. On way thru SC, Ball Hornet was much admired & garnered many stud fees. On reaching Walton Co, horse was involved in court case but eventually sold. ["Wayfares in Walton" by Anita B Sams (A History of Walton Co, GA, 1818-1967), Foote & Davies, Division McCall Corp, Doraville, GA, 1967, p 110]

Sometime b/n 1831 & 1840, Langley moved to Walton Co.

1840 Census, Town Dist, Walton Co, GA (p 97): Jennings, Langley B: 1 M 60-70 (Langley, 68); 1 F 10-15 (younger dau?); 1 F 20-30 (Sarah Amanda, abt 20?); 1 F 50-60 (Polly, 61); 0 slaves; no one employed in agriculture or commerce.

Will, written 8 Mar 1838; recorded 18 Jan 1844: 1) all property to wife Mary Jennings for her support & support of any daughs that may remain w/ her at her death; 2) $1 to James Dobbs, husb of dau Susan E; 3) $1 to Nathaniel M Bass, husb of dau Mary Jane; 4) to Sarah Amanda Dobbs, dau of James Dobbs, equal share w/ "the balance of my children"...if she should die, b/4 she obtains property, it is to go to her mother Susan E Dobbs [this implies this was his only grandchild at that time]; 5) to dau Mary Jane Bass equal share w/ rest of his children; 6) $1 to Susan E Dobbs; 7) "to all my children, except as above provided for, an equal share of all my property." Executors: Creed M Jennings, William H Jennings, Joseph B Jennings. [Note name uniformly spelled "Dobbs" in this document, while uniformly spelled "Dabbs" in 1828 indenture.]

28 Dec 1843: Langley's estate appraised at $2019, comprised of 4 slaves ($830), furniture ($149.50), kitchen furnishings ($27.50), animals ($12), & "the Village Hall in the town of Monroe" -- house, stable & lot -- ($1000).

CHILD 4 - Joseph JENNINGS Jr.-661

Cf father's note #657 for explanation that he was called Joseph Jennings Sr not to distinguish him from his son but from his nephew (b 1762) who was son of Joseph Sr's older bro William. Thus cannot be sure if it was son or nephew who participated in following:

Witnessed grandfather Wm Sr's deed in Feb 1792. Participated in inventory & appraisal of Wm's estate, which was dated 6 June 1800. If d. date 18 April 1800 correct, Joseph must have d. before document delivered -- or it was his cousin Joseph who did the inventory.

D date from "The Storied Kendalls."

Interests of Alfred Beardwell, "an insolvent debtor." Land of Beardwell Estate, dec'd, sold at public auction for $17.32. [Brunswick Co Deeds 12, p 265]

1838 Census, St. Andrew's Parish, Brunswick Co (1st county S of Wilmington), VA. pg 282: Wyandotte, Langley B: 1 M 5-10 (unknown son younger than three?); 1 M 20-30 (Langley); 1 F 10-15 (Sarah Amanda); 1 F 15-20 (Mary Jane); 1 F 20-30- (Elizabeth). 1 F 40-50 (Phillip); 17 slaves.

Population of Brunswick Co similar to neighboring Nottoway: out of a total of 16,367, 3321 were white, 613 free colored & 9726 slaves.

1831: Langley sued trustees "Bell Harvey" in case of mis-le-ius James Hobbs to Sam Creed, who lived in Walton Co. GA. Plea was for Creed to sell horse for $1800. On way thru SC, Bell Harvey was much admired & grounds may also free On reading matter Co, horse was involved in court case but eventually sold ("Negroes in Walton' by Anita B Sams in History of Walton Co, GA. 1818-1960). Route & Owning, Division McCall Corp, Bonneville, Ga, 1967, p 1111

Sometime b/w 1831 & 1834, Langley moved to Walton Co.

1810 Census, Town River, Walton Co. GA (p 871: Jacobsen, Langley B: 1 M 16-25 (Langley, 26): 1 F 16-18 (Jemmy Ann?); 1 F 26-35 (Sarah Amanda, dtr 25-1); 1 F 26 60 (Polly, 61); 6 slaves, no one employed in agriculture or commerce.

Will, written 8 Mar 1838; recorded 18 Jan 1841: 1) all property to wife Mary Jennings for her support & support of any daughter that may remain w/ her at her death; 2) $1 to James Hobbs, heirs of Dan Sugar $; 3) $1 to Nathaniel & Sara, heirs of Asa Mary Jones; 4) to Sarah Hobbs Bailey, dau of James Hobbs, equal share w/ "the balance of my children"...if she should die, $1/4 the obtains property. It is to go to her natural heirs & Hobbs [only implies this was his only grandchild at this time]. 5) to Asa Mary Ann, Elen, equal share w/ rest of his children. 6) 1) to Susan E Hobbs. 7) "to all my children, except as above provided for, an equal share of all my property." Executors: Creed & Jennings. William B Jennings, Joseph B Jennings. [Note some editorial spelling "Hobbs" in this document, while editorially spelled "Babbs" in 1838 Indenture.]

24 Dec 1845, Langley's relic appraised at $2819, comprises of 4 slaves ($2331), furniture ($144.50), kitchen furnishings ($127.50), animals ($312). & "the rolling Mill in the town of Monroe" -- house, stable & lot -- ($1500).

CHILD 4 - Joseph WINKINS Jr -05]

Cf Father's note 1851 for explanation that he was called Joseph Jennings Sr not to distinguish him from son Joe Jr from his nephew (b 1795) who was son of Joseph Sr's oldest bro William. This cannot be easy if it was son of nephew who participated in following:

Witnessed presidential on Sr's deed in Feb 1832. Participated in formation & appraisal of Mr's estate; estate was dated 6 June 1860. If 6, date 12 April 1850 correct. Census must have 6. Before documents digitized -- or it was his cousin Joseph who did the following).

6 daily from "The Storied Broadside."

HUSBAND Joseph JENNINGS Sr.-657 Yr of Birth 1739
WIFE Anne BILLUPS-658 Yr of Birth

CHILD 5 - Martha (Sally) JENNINGS-662

Martha married David G Talbot. Both signed contract dated 24 Mar 1812, at which time they lived in Campbell Co, VA. Francis Robertson's affidavit referred to her as "Sally." [cf her Aunt Mary Jennings' note #674]

CHILD 6 - Sarah (Sally) JENNINGS-663

Sarah married James Camp b/4 1795 & went to live w/ him in Rutherford Co, NC. 28 Dec 1795, her father sold her husb 100 acres in Nottoway Co on condition couple moved back there from NC & lived there until parents either died or moved away.

Couple signed contract (she as "Sally") 24 Mar 1812, at which time they were living in Spartenburg District, SC.

CHILD 7 - Elizabeth JENNINGS-664

Elizabeth married John Hall. Couple signed contract date 24 Mar 1812, at which time they were living in Union District, SC.

CHILD 8 - Robert Humphrey JENNINGS-667

Fact that Wm. Jennings Sr's youngest son named his youngest son "Humphrey" suggests link to the Birmingham Jenningses. So naming child could not have been related to later controversy over descent from Humphrey Jennings (see note on Mary Jane Jennings Hardester #650), because Humphrey did not die intestate, leaving vast fortune, until 1799.

He was not named in father's will, written in Oct 1803.

CHILD 9 - Jane "Livey" JENNINGS-666

In the Jennings-Wicks plot of the Old Cemetery in Abderdeen, Miss is the following headstone: "To the Memory of Mrs. Jane Culp who was born in Nottaway County, Virginia, on the 28th of Novermber 1789, and died in Abderdeen Miss on the 17th of November 1850, age 62 years, 3ll days."

This was undoubtedly Jane Jennings b/c this b. date jibes w/ those of her siblings. She was named as such in father's will & was still unmarried (age 23) when she signed contract dated 24 Mar 1812 as Jane Jennings of Nottoway Co.

According to list found by MWF in Nottoway Co Courthouse, "Marriages of Joseph Jennings & Anne Billups" compiled by Ruby B Oliver in 1943, Jane married 1) Mr. Packard; 2) Mr. Culp. Ms Oliver referred to her as "Livey."

She was Langley Billup Jennings' sis & must have migrated west to MS w/ other members of the family. But cf Wicks/Jarvis Notes, Part 5, pp 2-3 for problem of adjoining grave of ANOTHER Jane Culp also b. in Nottaway Co but w/ different b. & d. dates.

CHILD 10 - Lucy Armon JENNINGS-665

Hers (& Jane's, #666) only b dates not given by "The Storied Kendalls." According to 1850 Census of Monroe Co, MS, she was b. abt 1796, which would have been 28 yrs aft her mother's 1st child was b. (Mary, in 1768). That is

HUSBAND - Joseph JACKSON Sr.-ESY
WIFE - Anne BILLUPS-ASB

Yr of Birth 1720
Yr of Birth

CHILD 5 - Martha (Sally) JACKSON-SBS

Martha married David E Talbot. Both signed contract dated 24 Mar 1812, at which time they lived in Campbell Co, VA. Francis Robertson's affidavit referred to her as 'Sally'. [pr Bar Asst Barry Jennings' Note 1871]

CHILD 6 - Sarah (Sally) JACKSON-SBS

Sarah married James Camp 6th 1783 & went to live w/ him in Amherst Co, VA. 22 Dec 1795. Her father sold her back 100 acres in Amherst Co on condition couple moved back there from NC & lived there until parents either died or moved away.

Bonnie signed contract (she as 'Sally') 23 Mar 1812. At which time they were living in Spartanburg District, SC.

CHILD 7 - Elizabeth JACKSON-ASB

Elizabeth married John Ball. Couple signed contract date 23 Mar 1812, at which time they were living in Union District, SC.

CHILD 8 - Robert Murphy JACKSON-BSY

Part that WA, according to a journal son named his youngest son 'Humphrey' suggests this is the Birmingham Humphreys. So maybe child could not live here related to later generations once married from Murphy Jackson (see note on Mary Ann Jennings Roberson 1820). Because Humphrey did not die intestate. Leaving west Indians, until 1793.

He was not named in father's will, written in late 1793.

CHILD 9 - Jane "Jinny" JACKSON-CBE

In the Jennings-Wicks plot of the Old Cemetery in Robertson, Wise in the following headstone: "In the Memory of Mrs. Jane Cole who was born in Botetourt County, Virginia, on the 26th of December 1787, and died in Abercrombie Miss on the 11th of November 1853. Age 65 years, 11 days."

This was undoubtedly Jane Jennings bio this b. date jibes w/ those of her children. She was named as such in father's will & was still unmarried late 1811 when she signed contract dated 24 Mar 1812 as Jane Jennings of Botetourt Co.

According to list found by MAT in Nottoway Co Courthouse. "Marriages of Jeremi Jennings & Jane Billups" compiled by Jno & Oliver in 1913, Jane married 11 Xr. Feckard, 21 Dr. Cole. Mr Oliver referred to her as "Jinny".

She was Jennie Billup Jennings' sis & must have migrated west in 35 w/ other members of the family. Dtr of Alexander Jennings. Pate 6, pg 1-3 for probing of adjoining piece of ANDREWS Jane Cole also b. in Nottoway Co but w/ different M. & J. dates

CHILD 10 - Lucy Ayres JACKSON-ASB

Born 13 June'1, 1788' only 3 dates not given by "The Storied Ennalls."
According to 1850 Census of Monroe Co, MS, she was b. abt 1789, which would have been 26 yrs aft her mother's 1st child was b. (Mary, in 1764). That is possible. Even if she "spoofed" her age, unlikely she would have been b. b/4 sis Jane, whose 1789 b. date is pretty certain.

HUSBAND Joseph JENNINGS Sr.-657 Yr of Birth 1739
WIFE Anne BILLUPS-658 Yr of Birth

Altho middle name "Armon" seems well documented, could it have been "Aronan?" That was middle name of her granddaugh Mary Aronan Wicks (#603) & of her g-grandson Aronan French Wicks (cf John Cox Wicks note #604).

She m Robert B Billups (perhaps cousin?). She sometimes signed name "Armon Billups." Couple both signed contract (she as Lucy Armon, wife of Robt Billups) dated 24 Mar 1812, at which time they were living in Halifax Co, VA.

According to MWF's bio of her father Moye Wicks (in Wicks/Jarvis file), Robert B. Billups was a "patron" of the Monroe Academy, so this family migrated S from VA to Walton Co, GA, also.

Folder #F207, Cox, John, in a compendium on the history of Aberdeen, MS, in the Aberdeen Pub Lib contains the following: "According to Goodspeed, Lucy A. Cox was Lucy A. Jennings, who had previously married a Billups." If this is correct, & there is no reason to doubt it, Robt B Billups must have d. b/4 1826 (he is NOT listed among trustees & patrons of Monroe academies in "Wayfarers in Walton" which go back to 1829) b/c Lucy had m. John Cox & bore son John B. abt 1827. Since he & his twin sisters Lucy & Mary Jane (b. Jan 1829) were all b. in AL, Lucy Sr. might have met & m. John Cox in Walton Co, but they were settled somewhere in AL by 1827. Their westward migration continued b/c we know John Cox arrived in Aberdeen abt 1843 & bought 6000 acres on W bank of Tombigbee River.

Daugh Lucy m. John West Wicks, Moses Jarvis Wicks' bro, in 1848. Thus Lucy Cox Wicks & Sarah Amanda Jennings Wicks were 1st cousins.

Notes

HUSBAND - Langley Billups JENNINGS-647

B, m & d dates from "The Storied Kendalls."

He m Mary (Polly) Cook in VA in 1796. James Cook who participated in inventory of Wm Jennings' estate in June 1800 prob was relative of Langley's wife, which suggests she was native of Nottoway Co also.

5 Mar 1801: for love, affection & 5 shillings, his father granted him 208 acres in Nottoway Co [cf Joseph Jennings #657 for deed].

1810 Census, Nottoway Co, VA, pg 19: Jennings, Langly (sic) B: 1 M 10-16 (Creed, age?); 1 M 26-45 (Langley, 38); 5 F <10 (3 daughs w/ unknown b dates: Elizabeth, Susan, Mary Jane & other 2, perhaps unknown daughs who d aft 1810??); 1 F 26-45 (Polly, 31); 8 slaves.

Total population of Nottoway Co in 1810 was 9658. Of those: white males, 1380; white females, 1350; free colored, 180; slaves, 6368. Not only was population 2/3 slaves, the white population was very young: only 445 males & 414 females were >26.

He was an executor of father's will (proved Feb 1805) & played major role in settling of his estate; e.g., in Jan 1812 he was indemnified by other heirs in selling all Joseph's "perishable properties, household & kitchen furniture, plantation utensils, etc." & bound to distribute proceeds among them.

24 Mar 1812: all heirs of Joseph Jennings & their spouses signed contract.
Only exception was "Langley B Jennings of Nottoway Co," whose wife did NOT sign. Significance?

1820 Census, Nottoway Co, VA (no twp), pg 436: Jennings, Langley B: 3 M <10 (William, Joseph & 1 other, who perhaps d aft 1820); 1 M 26-45 (Langley); 1 F <10 (Sarah Amanda); 4 F 10-16 (Susan, Mary Jane & 2 others listed in 1810?); 1 F 16-25 (Elizabeth), 1 F 26-45 (Polly); 5 slaves. Note Creed had left home. [County population structure was same as in 1810: 2805 whites (only 920 >26) & 6676 slaves. Langley was obviously a minor slave owner.]

In addition to the Mary & Nancy Jennings in 1820 Census living nearby (pp 460 & 440) who may have been Langley's sisters (cf their notes 659 & 660), there were 2 other Jennings I can't identify. They were prob uncles or cousins: Henry Jennings, >45, w/ 88 slaves (p 438), & Micah Jennings, 26-45, w/ 7 small children & 25 slaves (pg 440).

10 Oct 1827: Langley B & Polley Jennings of Nottoway Co sold Nathan Ward 330 acres where Jennings now resides together w/ all appurtanances (property not described) for $4150. Witnesses: F. Wortham, John Chandler, Edmund Fizgerald. /s/ Langley B Jennings, Polley Jennings. [Nottoway Co Records, Book 8, pp 96-7] This was prob disposal of all property preparatory to move south to Brunswick Co, VA.

6 Nov 1828: Indenture...between Langley B Jennings of Nottoway Co & Creed Jennings of Georgia. Witness: that whereas the said Langley B Jennings from the natural love & affection which he hath for his daugher Susan E Dabbs & his grandchild, Amanda M Dabbs, daugher of said Susan, & from the love & regard & divers other considerations in the said Langley B Jennings, moving which he the said Langley B Jennings entertains for & towards John W Dabbs, infant son of James Dabbs, husband of said Susan, is desirous of securing unto them the said Susan E, Amanda M & John W Dabbs, a support in the world. Now, therefore, this Indenture witnesseth that the said Langley B Jennings for & in consideration of the premises & for & in virtue of the further consideration of $10...paid by the said Creed Jennings.. .hath this day bargained, sold, etc...unto the said Creed Jennings...all the title, interest & estate which he the said Langley hath in the dower of Ann Powell of the County of Amelia which she the said Ann Powell now holds & occupies in right of dower to her late husband, William Powell, & which he, the said Langley Jennings lately purchased of James Dabbs, who was entitled to a share thereof in right of his late wife Amanda M Dabbs, formerly Powell, together with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging... with him the said Creed Jennings...In the special Trust & confidence...that he the said Creed Jennings shall...take into his possession the said property hereby conveyed...so soon as the said Ann Powell shall depart this life & the right to the possession of the same come unto the distributies of the said William Powell, dec'd, & the profits thereof pay over annually unto the said Susan E, Amanda M & John W Dabbs for their support & maintenance, free from the control of the husband of said Susan E Dabbs & so do from year to year until the said Amanda M & John W Dabbs shall come to lawful age or marry...one third of the estate conveyed to each of the said infant children respectively..& apply to the maintenance & support of said Susan E Dabbs until the death of her present husband. Should she survive him then Creed Jennings shall convey the estate to Susan E Dabbs. /s/ Langley B Jennings. Witnesses: James Dabbs, Frances R Jennings, Eliza C Jennings. [Nottoway Co Records Book 4, p 251]

Interpretation: Langley's dau Susan E m James Dabbs shortly b/4 1828 & had infant dau Amanda M by him. James' 1st wife was Amanda M Powell, by whom he had son James W, who was also still infant in 1828. Amanda apparently died shortly b/4. Amanda was apparently sis of William Powell, also dec'd. Wm's wife Ann held part of her late husb's property by right of dower, while part had gone to his sis Amanda & then, on her death, to her husb James Dabbs. Langley had purchased the latter from Dabbs & was now selling it for $10 to his son Creed. Creed was to pay profits annually to his sis Susan, her dau Amanda, & her step-son John W free from control by her husb, John Dabbs. On Ann Powell's death, her dower rights would apparently go to Creed too.

15 Dec 1828: Langley Jennings puts up negro woman China, her 5 children, & 2 other slaves, Griffin & Cynthia, as security that he will repay debt of $696.37 + interest to Dromgoole bros b/4 1 Feb 1829. [Brunswick Co Book 28, p 133] [This indicates Langley had moved his family to Brunswick Co late in 1828.]

22 June 1829: Langley puts up same 8 slaves as security he will repay debt of $439.22 to Mssrs Trumbull & Powell by 1 July. [Brunswick Co Book 28, p 209]

29 Sept 1829: Sheriff of Brunswick Co conveys to Langley rights to all interests of Alred Heartwell, "an insolvent debtor." Land of Heartwell Bass, dec'd, sold at public auction for $17.25. [Brunswick Co Book 28, p 265]

1830 Census, St. Andrew's Parish, Brunswick Co (1st county S of Nottoway), VA, pg 262: Jennings, Langley B: 1 M 5-10 (unknown son younger than Sarah?); 1 M 50-60 (Langley); 1 F 10-15 (Sarah Amanda); 1 F 15-20 (Mary Jane); 1 F 20-30 (Elizabeth); 1 F 40-50 (Polly); 17 slaves.

Population of Brunswick Co similar to neighboring Nottowy: out of a total of 15,767, 5397 were white, 612 free colored & 9758 slaves.

1831: Langley sent racehorse "Ball Hornet" in care of son-in-law James Dabbs to son Creed, who lived in Walton Co, GA. Plan was for Creed to sell horse for $1000. On way thru SC, Ball Hornet was much admired & garnered many stud fees. On reaching Walton Co, horse was involved in court case but eventually sold. ["Wayfares in Walton" by Anita B Sams (A History of Walton Co, GA, 1818-1967), Foote & Davies, Division McCall Corp, Doraville, GA, 1967, p 110]

Sometime b/n 1831 & 1840, Langley moved to Walton Co.

1840 Census, Town Dist, Walton Co, GA (p 97): Jennings, Langley B: 1 M 60-70 (Langley, 68); 1 F 10-15 (younger dau?); 1 F 20-30 (Sarah Amanda, abt 20?); 1 F 50-60 (Polly, 61); 0 slaves; no one employed in agriculture or commerce.

Will, written 8 Mar 1838; recorded 18 Jan 1844: 1) all property to wife Mary Jennings for her support & support of any daughs that may remain w/ her at her death; 2) $1 to James Dobbs, husb of dau Susan E; 3) $1 to Nathaniel M Bass, husb of dau Mary Jane; 4) to Sarah Amanda Dobbs, dau of James Dobbs, equal share w/ "the balance of my children"...if she should die, b/4 she obtains property, it is to go to her mother Susan E Dobbs [this implies this was his only grandchild at that time]; 5) to dau Mary Jane Bass equal share w/ rest of his children; 6) $1 to Susan E Dobbs; 7) " to all my children, except as above provided for, an equal share of all my property." Executors: Creed M Jennings, William H Jennings, Joseph B Jennings. [Note name uniformly spelled "Dobbs" in this document, while uniformly spelled "Dabbs" in 1828 indenture.]

28 Dec 1843: Langley's estate appraised at $2019, comprised of 4 slaves ($830), furniture ($149.50), kitchen furnishings ($27.50), animals ($12), & "the Village Hall in the town of Monroe" -- house, stable & lot -- ($1000).

WIFE - Mary (Polly) COOK-648

B & d dates from tombstone, inscribed "In Memory of Our Mother, Mrs Mary Jennings."

She had prob migrated west to Aberdeen w/ her sons Creed & William & dau Sarah Amanda aft her husb died in GA in 1843.

ORDER BASED ON SUCH CLUES AS ARE AVAILABLE.

Creed was presumably oldest child. If he was 1 M 10-16 in 1810 Census, 1 M 30-40 in 1830 Census, & 40-50 in 1840 Census. Therefore, he was b in or b/4 1800, which would fit w/ parents marriage in 1796.

He m Sara Bailey. Was living in Walton Co GA in 1830, was executor of bro William's will in Aberdeen, MS, in 1846, & was said by "Storied Kendalls" to have d in Memphis.

1830 Census, Walton Co, GA, enum 1 June, pg 123: Jennings, Creed M: 1 M <5, 1 M 15-20, 1 M 20-30, 1 M 30-40 (Creed), 1 F <5, 1 F 10-15, 1 F 20-30 (wife Sara), 5 slaves. [By 1830 Creed could have had 3 children (2 <5, 1 10-15) but not 2 sons 15-20 & 20-30. One or both of latter might have been his younger bros, William, 17, & Joseph 11, who were NOT in their father's household in 1830. Admittedly, Joseph does not fit in & could have been living w/ a married sis. If so, the M 20-30 is a mystery. Perhaps another Jennings relative?]

Population structure of this county is 1830 reverse of those in VA in 1810-20 (cf Langley Jennings' note 647): Total 10, 931, of which 7753 were white & only 3164 slaves.

1840 Census, Wetumpka District, Coose Couty, AL. (Wetumpka now county seat of adjoining Elmore Co, formed from Coosa in 1866, is abt 10 mi. N of Montgomery.) pg 311: Creed M. Jennings, 1 M 5-10; 1 M 15-20, 1 M 40-50 (Creed); 2 F <5; 1 F 5-10; 1 F 20-30 (wife Sara); 9 slaves. 1 person engaged in agriculture. His bro Joseph B. Jennings was also in Wetumpka (pg 313), but bro William was not.

CHILD 2 - Elizabeth C. JENNINGS-652

She witnessed indenture 6 Nov 1828 [cf father's note #647], so must have been of legal age then. Therefore est b in or b/4 1807.

Elizabeth married her second cousin, James Jennings Jr, of Augusta, GA.

CHILD 3 - Susan E. JENNINGS-653

Susan married James Dobbs (or Dabbs) sometime before 1828 b/c as of indenture dated 6 Nov she already had infant dau Sarah Amanda. Therefore est she would have been at least 20; i.e., b abt 1808. [cf father's note #647]

She was still m to him & her dau Sarah Amanda was still alive when father Langley wrote his will 8 Mar 1838.

When Memphis census was enumerated 29 Aug 1860, she was listed in household of her bro-in-law Moses Jarvis Wicks as "Susan E Dabs, 50, b VA" (cf his note 588). Apparently she was widowed & had gone to live w/ her younger sis Sarah Amanda.

CHILD 4 - Mary Jane JENNINGS-650

In 1810 Census Langley B Jennings' household included 5 F <10. Since we know of only 4 daughs, & 1 (Sarah Amanda) must have been b aft 1810, I cannot account for 2 of these girls. However, Mary Jane must have been 1 of three b in or b/4 1810. Since she is only possible F 15-20 in 1830 Census (cf father's note #647), that would mean she was b in 1810.

Mary Jane married 1) Nathaniel M Bass b/4 1838 (she is so identified in father's will, written Mar 1838). [Note her father had foreclosed on land of "Heartwill Bass, dec'd" on which "Mrs Bass resides" in Sept 1829. Could this have been Mary Jane? cf father's note #647] Sometime aft 1838 she m 2) J.T.Hardester.

As Mary Jane Hardester she apparently spent much of her life in a fruitless pursuit of the fortune left by a son of Humphrey Jennens who died intes- tate in England. (See typescript "The Trist Wood Papers on Jennings" from the

He m Sara Bailey. We know in Walker Co GA in 1830, was assessor of Dee Williams mill in Marshall, MS, in 1860, & was said by "Stonies Kentucky" to have a m Memphis.

1830 Census, Walker Co, GA, enum 1 below, pg 132: Jennings, Cited M, 1 M <5, 1 M 15-20, 1 M 20-30, 1 M 30-40 (Cited), 1 F <5, 1 F 10-15, 1 F 20-30 (wife Sara), 5 slaves. [By 1850 Cited could have had 3 children (2-5, 1 10-15) but not 2 sons (15-20 & 20-30). One or both of these might have been his younger sons, William, 17, & Joseph 11, who were NOT in their father's household in 1850. Alternately, Joseph does not fit in & could have been living w/ a married sis. If so, the M 20-30 is a mystery. Perhaps another Jennings relative?]

Population structure of this county in 1830 reverse of those in VA in 1810-20 (see Langley Jennings data 047). Total 10, 021, of whom 7753 were white & only 1164 slaves.

1840 Census, Wyoming District, Clinton County, Ala. (Wyoming was county seat of adjoining Fentress Co, formed from Clinton in 1850, a dec 10 mi N of Livingston.) pg 311: Cited M Jennings, 1 M 5-10, 1 M 20-30, 1 F 20-30 (Cited), 2 F <5, 1 F 5-10, 1 F 20-30 (wife Sara), 0 slaves. 1 person engaged in agriculture. [By two loops B Jennings was also in Wyoming (pg 311), but two William were not.

CHILD 2 - Elizabeth C. JENNINGS-652
She witnessed indenture 6 Nov 1838 [Clerk's note 864?], so must have been of legal age then. Therefore est b bf or by 1807.

Elizabeth married her second cousin, James Jennings Jr., of Augusta, GA.

CHILD 3 - Susan H. JENNINGS-653
Susan married James Hughes (q. Tarlton) marriage bond 6 Jan 1838 [Clerk's note 864?] so must have been of legal age then. Therefore est b bf or by 1817.

She was still in Ga in her late Sarah Ann only was alive when father Langley wrote his will 8 Mar 1839.

When Langley estate was processed 22 Aug 1839, she was listed in process as Mrs. James Hughes. Maybe as "Susan B Hughes, 30 y VA" (a bit more 5/40). Apparently she was widowed & had gone to live w/ her younger sis Sarah Ann.

CHILD 4 - Mary Jane H.C. JENNINGS-650
In 1840 Census Langley Jennings household included 5 F <10. Since we know of only 4 daughs & 3 (Sarah Ann, Susan, & Elizabeth) must have been in 2 of these girls. However, Mary Jane may have been 1 of these b in or bf 1816. Such is also possible 1 F 20-30 in 1840 Census (of father's note 864?). She would then be was b in 1810.

Mary Jane married 11 September bf Bass by 1838 (she is so identified in Sister's will, written Mar 1839). [Maybe her father had Everyman or land at "Hearnwell Bass, decd" on which "Mrs Bass resides" in Sept 1839. Could this have been Mary Jane? [Clerk's note 864?] Sometime aft 1850 she m 3) J.T. Univ. of N.C. Southern Historical Collection in Jennings file.) She is said to have secured an audience with Queen Victoria around 1870.

Told that she must prove that the American William Jennings (her great grandfather) was really the son of Humphrey and originally a British sub- ject, she had William's body exhumed. She said he was buried in his British regimental uniform with his sword. With this and other evidence (perhaps William & Mary Pulliam Jennings' family bible?) she was about to return to England when she died. Some of the people whom Mary Jane contacted in her quest thought she was "non compus mentis."

D date based on letter she wrote b/4 departing for England.

NB: Mary Jane & others intent on claiming the Jennings fortune quite likely falsified &/or destroyed genealogical records to prove William Jennings Sr (#668) was son of Humphrey Jennings of Birmingham, England. Cf William Jennings' note for account of how JGF & RKF disproved this.

B & d dates from tombstone. He was only 33 when he died & apparently never m.

He was prob in bro Creed's household in Monroe, GA, in 1830 Census (1 M 15-20) when he was 18. He was not w/ bros Creed & Joseph in Wetumpka, AL, in 1840 Census. Could he have been "Wm. Jinnings (sic)" in 1840 Census of Pickens Co, AL, [pg 343: 1 M 20-30; 1 M 40-50] just ten households away from Matilda Wicks? William was 28 then. There was also a William Jennings in Tuscaloosa in 1840 Census Index, but I did not check this tally sheet.

Will, dated 24 June 1846, named bro Creed as executor. Bulk of estate left to "my dearly beloved sister, Sarah Amanda Jennings." When probated 14 Jan 1847, Sarah was granted Lots 615, 616, 717 & 624 in Town of Aberdeen & Block #34 in town of Old Aberdeen.

He was abt 21 then & obviously not married. Bro Creed & his family were in same district (pg 311). He prob moved to Aberdeen along w/ Creed & other bro William (know these 2 bros were in Aberdeen by 1846). If wife was 18 and daugh 2 in 1850, he must have married abt 1847, when Flora was only 15.

CHILD 7 - Sarah Amanda JENNINGS-589

Birth: IGI (Batch 8321509, Serial Sheet 81) lists "Sallie A. Jennings, b. 1820, Nottoway Co." In 1850 Census she was 26, but in 1880 Census she was 60. Tombstone states she was "a Christian for 64 years;" i.e., since about 1835. This must refer to some event such as confirmation, which occurs around age 16. Therefore 1820 b. date probably correct. [Only other child in her family who might have been called Sallie was sis Susan E, & known she was m b/4 1828.

Moved to Monroe, Walton Co, GA w/ family b/n ages 11-20; i.e., sometime b/n 1831 & 1840. Her father & family were in 1840 Census of Walton Co. Sarah Amanda was prob the "F 20-30," being abt 20 at that time.

According to MWF's bio of Sarah's son, Moye Wicks (cf. Wicks/Jarvis file), she attended an academy in Monroe that was co-ed. This may have been the male & female Academy of Monroe which opened in 1830 to prepare students to enter college. (Richard R Billups was a trustee.) Or it may have been Monroe Academy, which opened in 1833. In 1835, it had 32 M & 49 F students. Or she may have been in the Female Academy, which opened in Jan 1835 along w/ a Male Academy. Latter taught French, geology, minerology, math & surveying; subjects taught to females not specified. Creed Jennings, Sarah's bro, was trustee of both Monroe Academy & the Male/Female Academy. [Sams, AB, op cit under Langley B. Jennings note (#647), pp 328-30, xerox in file]

MWF wrote JMF: "My father always spoke of his mother w/ great love & affection. Unfortunately, I never knew her. She was extrememly intelligent &, unlike most women of her time, she had a thorough classical education. She delighted in her young son's receptive mind & at the age of 4, she taught him Latin so he was able to write her notes in that language--so tradition has it! Altho she had a commanding presence, her eyes were warm & generous & I believe there was more than enough about her to bring a warm glow into the cold archives & legends of the family."

After father's d. in 1843, Sarah & her mother moved to Aberdeen, Miss. to make their home w/ her bro William H Jennings, who had "gone west" sometime before. William Jennings' will, dated 24 June 1846, probated 14 Jan 1847, left bulk of his estate (incl 4 lots in Aberdeen & 1 in Old Aberdeen) to "my dearly beloved sister Sarah Amanda Jennings." Executor was bro Creed M. Jennings.

Another bro, Joseph Billups, & his wife also settled in Aberdeen, & Creed was prob m then (Wm never was), so the whole family prob migrated together from GA.

She m Moses Jarvis Wicks in Aberdeen on 13 July 1846, just 3 wks after receiving above legacy. Her husb had little formal education. Sarah Amanda took on the task of teaching him &, going by his subsequent success in busi- ness, must have done a good job of it.

They purchased lot on NW corner Chestnut & Monroe Sts & built frame Greek Revival house there. Their 1st child, William, was b 9 April 1847.

For life in Aberdeen, Memphis & finally in Calif see notes on Moses Jarvis Wicks #588.

Among items JMF received from MWF that originally belonged to Moses & Amanda Wicks is photo of a handsome but rather sad-faced woman of abt 40 with dark hair streaked at temples w/ gray. She is wearing simple dress w/ lace collar & distinctive broach. Only clue to her identity is "Bingham & Bros's Gallery, 218 Main St, Memphis" & a 3 cent US Internal Revenue stamp on reverse. JMF found Scott Stamp Catalogue says stamp appeared late in 1862 or early 1863 & was used abt 8 yrs. Since Memphis fell to Federal forces in June 1862, this stamp could have been used in that city b/n late 1862 & 1871. JMF thinks subject resembles Martha Gordon Sorrel, but we have no evidence she had any reason to travel to Memphis in difficult days after Civil War when she was struggling to keep her plantation in TX. Since Sarah Amanda Wicks was in Memphis thru all these yrs, I think it more likely this is a photo of her --altho it's entirely possible it is of some other, unrelated woman. NB: IF SOME LIVING DESCENDANT OWNS BROACH IN THIS PHOTO IT MIGHT HELP IDENTIFY THIS WOMAN. [Cf JMF's photos & analysis of 7 July 1944 in file.]

Death: 30 Mar 1899 in LA. Case #3109, Superior Court Records, LA County Archives, contains her holograph will & probate documents. Will, dated 25 April 1895, & 2 codicils in August left "a book out of my library" to son Moses L. & forgave a $2357 note of her son Moye. (A similar note of M.L.'s was NOT mentioned.) HUSBAND - Joseph Billups JENNINGS-651

B & d dates & burial place from "The Storied Kendalls."

He was prob M 5-10 in his father's household in 1830 Census of Brunswick Co, VA (he was 11 then). 1840 Census, Wetumpka District, Coosa Co, AL, pg 313: Jos. B. Jennings, 1 M 20-30, 1 slave. He was abt 21 then & obviously not married. Bro Creed & his family were in same district (pg 311). He prob moved to Aberdeen along w/ Creed & other bro William (know these 2 bros were in Aberdeen by 1846). If wife was 18 and daugh 2 in 1850, he must have married abt 1847, when Flora was only 15.

1850 Census Monroe Co, Miss: Joseph B. Jennings, 31, merchant, b Va, real estate &3200; Flora A, 18, b Tenn; Cordelia, 12, b Miss. [Cf notes on Flora for ? about her age & Cordelia's.]

JMF has ads from Aberdeen newspapers on file showing he was slave merchant.

WIFE - Flora Ann LINDSAY-655

B date from "The Storied Kendalls." 1850 Census gives age 18; i.e., b 1832. Whichever is correct, either age give for daugh Cordelia (12) is wrong, or she was daugh of an earlier marriage. JMF says Cordelia b 1848; i.e., was 2, not 12 in 1850

D date & place from "The Storied Kendalls."
